

RABBINICAL COLLEGE OF AMERICA

TRANSFER CREDITS AND ACADEMIC RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT

NEW DIRECTION PROGRAM:

Rabbinical College of America will grant a maximum of 60 credits towards Rabbinical College of America's undergraduate degree for transfer coursework submitted.

To earn a Bachelor of Religious Education, students must fulfill a minimum academic residency requirement of 60 credits earned in residence for study at Rabbinical College of America, of the total 120 credits.

Transfer credits will be accepted only if the following conditions are met:

- The credit was earned at an institution offering similar programs i.e. Talmudic Institutions and Yeshivas. (In instances where a student feels related coursework has been completed outside of similar institutions, they can submit their transcript for review and further analysis).
- The credits transferred must be based on course work similar in content, style, and academic rigor to the courses offered at Rabbinical College of America.
- Transfer credits will only be granted if a school transcript from the institution is submitted to Rabbinical College of America

An evaluation may be performed that assesses the student's competency in reading and interpreting Talmud and measures analytical skills and critical thinking and reasoning abilities. The evaluation ascertains the level and type of study appropriate for the students in Rabbinical College of America. The student is then awarded credits by evaluation.

Rabbinical College of America does not have any articulation agreements with regard to whether the Yeshiva will accept credits from other institutions nor with regard to whether other institutions accept the Yeshiva's credits. Before enrolling in the institution, students should be sure that their attendance will help them reach their educational goals.

All decisions regarding transfer credits are subject to the same procedure described above without exception.

Please be advised that the transferability of credits and acceptance of the degrees earned at Rabbinical College of America are at the complete discretion of an institution to which a student may seek to transfer. If the credits or the degrees earned at this institution are not accepted at the institution to which a student seeks to transfer, he may be required to repeat some or all of the coursework at that institution.

ADVANCED TALMUD PROGRAM:

Rabbinical College of America will grant a maximum of 84 credits towards Rabbinical College of America's undergraduate degree for transfer coursework submitted.

To earn a Bachelors of Talmudic Studies, students must fulfill a minimum academic residency requirement of 60 credits earned in residence for study at Rabbinical College of America, of the total 144 credits.

Transfer credits will be accepted only if the following conditions are met:

- The credit was earned at an institution offering similar programs i.e. Talmudic Institutions and Yeshivas.

- The credits transferred must be based on course work similar in content, style, and academic rigor to the courses offered at Rabbinical College of America.
- Transfer credits will only be granted if a school transcript from the institution is submitted to Rabbinical College of America
- Credit by examination may occasionally be granted to students who have studied at other institutions and demonstrate mastery of subject matter taught in RCA courses. These students will then be placed at the appropriate academic level as that will place them on par with their class.
